Price resigns under pressure from Trump

U.S. Health and Human Services Secretary Tom Price resigned under pressure from President Donald Trump on Friday in an uproar over Price's use of costly private charter planes for government business.

His abrupt departure was announced an hour after Trump told reporters he was disappointed in Price's use of private aircraft and did not like the way it reflected on his administration.

Trump named Don Wright to serve as acting secretary. Wright is currently the deputy assistant secretary for health and director of the office of disease prevention and health promotion.

"I'm not happy. OK? I'm not happy," Trump told reporters on the White House South Lawn.

Candidates to succeed Price included Seema Verma, who is administrator of the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services and who is close to Vice President Mike Pence, and Scott Gottlieb, a physician who serves as commissioner of the Food and Drug Administration, according to industry analysts.

Secretary of Health Several and Human Services Thomas Price offered his resignation earlier today and the president accepted," the White House said in a statement.

sources saw Gottlieb as a clear front runner. They said he got along well with the White House and is viewed favorably there.

Price's resignation leaves Trump with a second Cabinet position to fill. He has yet to pick a secretary for homeland security after hiring former Secretary John Kelly as his White House chief of staff.

It was the latest blow to the Trump White House, which has struggled to get major legislative achievements passed by Congress and has been embroiled in one controversy after another since Trump took office in January.

Price, a former congressman, was instrumental in the Trump administration's policies aimed at undercutting Obamacare, as well as working with governors across the country to slowly begin unraveling parts of the law.

The S&P 500 and the Nasdag advanced to record levels on Friday, buoyed by gains in technology stocks, while each of the major indexes closed out the quarter with solid gains.

Technology .SPLRCT was the best performing of the major S&P sectors, up 0.75 percent, its fourth straight day of gains to recover from a selloff earlier in the week.

The S&P and Nasdaq closed at records for the third straight day and the benchmark S&P index posted its sixth straight month of gains.

"It really sums up kind of what we saw all month and all quarter, another calm day," said Ryan Detrick, senior market strategist at LPL Financial in Charlotte, North Carolina.

"This is one of the least volatile Septembers in history, it is kind of a continuation of that real dull trading with a nice upward bias."

For September, the Dow gained 2.1 percent, the S&P rose 1.9 percent and the Nasdaq advanced 1.05 percent.

Fifteen sound stages, two water tanks, 221 acres of backlot (not to mention condos, restaurants and a school): "When we bring [Hollywood people] out here, they're like, 'OMG!"

Walking through Wanda Studios Qingdao on China's eastern coast, it can feel as though one has stepped onto the set of the world's largest science fiction film ever — which still is under construction. Huge cream-colored sound stages loom in perfect lines across a vast expanse of blacktop, like nodes in a massive microchip. Off the coast, an artificial island emerges from the surface of the sea, as dozens of cranes swivel around the framework of hotels, condos and half-formed entertainment venues. Earthmovers toil on the opposite horizon, their wheels taller than people. Backdropping it all, huge Chinese characters sit atop a single, rocky mountain, Hollywood sign-like. They read (in translation): "Movie Metropolis of the

On the day I toured the 408-acre Wanda Studios — a week before it was unveiled Oct. 17 by Wang Jianlin at an industry-packed gala at the Los Angeles County Museum of Art — my guide was Morgan Hunwicks, a Canadian and production veteran who had spent 10 years working at Fox Studios in Sydney before joining WSQ as head of production. As our tour was getting underway, Hunwicks, perhaps reading my face, succinctly describes the experience I am having: "What we're finding out is that people in the industry don't really believe it's real yet," he says. "But then we bring them out here, and they're like, 'OMG!' "

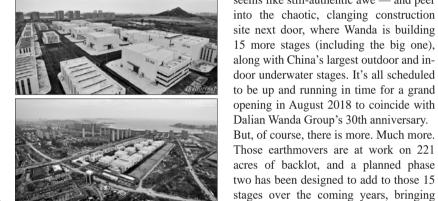

For most of the morning, Hunwicks and I whizz around the sprawling studio site by golf cart (Wanda has bought a fleet of them, available for productions to rent). We begin in the completed section of the facility, comprising about 15 soundstages and 11 production workshops, where Wanda-owned Legendary Entertainment's Pacific Rim 2 is the first project set to take up residence in two weeks. I am eager to see the largest of the stages, so Hunwicks steers us into an airport-hangar-sized structure of 6,000 square meters (about 65,000 square feet), explaining that this building is tied with a stage at Pinewood London as the world's largest but that Wanda's has some sound treating and new features — a football field could fit inside with room to spare, he says. Also, Wanda has built two of them, and construction already is underway on another nearly twice the size — an astonishing 10,000 square meters (about 107,000 square feet). A natural question arises: Why does any studio need a stage so big and can Wanda actually fill it?

Says Hunwicks, "In this age of superhero movies and the revival of Star Wars, there's demand for really big stages sets that used to have to be built outside can now be brought into a controlled environment, which is a huge advantage."

We then cruise to the perimeter of the completed zone — "If we were at Warners or Paramount, we would have circled the full lot already," my guide notes with what seems like still-authentic awe — and peer into the chaotic, clanging construction site next door, where Wanda is building 15 more stages (including the big one), along with China's largest outdoor and indoor underwater stages. It's all scheduled to be up and running in time for a grand opening in August 2018 to coincide with Dalian Wanda Group's 30th anniversary. But, of course, there is more. Much more. Those earthmovers are at work on 221 acres of backlot, and a planned phase two has been designed to add to those 15 the total up to 45 stages comprising nearly twice the square footage of Universal, Hollywood's biggest filmmaking facility. In addition to its sheer size, Wanda Studios, which is a one-hour flight from Beijing (direct from L.A. takes 12 hours), also will offer a 40 percent production rebate for qualifying film and TV productions.

The facility is the centerpiece of a much larger real estate development called the Qingdao Movie Metropolis. The title isn't hyperbolic: Wanda effectively is building a city from the ground up — at an expense exceeding $8 billion. Residing atop Wanda's newly reclaimed artificial island will be luxury hotels, restaurants and bars, upscale condos, Asia's largest theater, an international hospital and even a school. Next to the studio on the mainland are more condos, a convention center, a shopping mall, four indoor theme parks and on and on. Wanda is calling it the largest mixed-use entertainment development

Back in the Qingdao city center, in the studio's temporary offices, I meet Wanda Studios COO Patrick Dempsey, who came to the company with more than two decades of experience running Hollywood studios, most recently as a vp at Sony Pictures Entertainment. (Wanda also has spared no expense in recruiting veteran management.)

"This project never would have happened in Los Angeles or anywhere else; it's staggering," says Dempsey. "We're at that launchpad phase now," he adds, looking out his window at the skyscrapers around Qingdao harbor. "We just need a few successful projects to prove that everyone can have a smooth, comfortable experience here."

A huge 3D model of the Qingdao Movie Metropolis project is on display in a temporary pavilion at the entrance to the studio site. "I've been trying to think of something to do with it after construction on the project is done," says Dempsey, COO of Wanda Studios. "I was thinking maybe we could put it under a glass floor somewhere."

I then ask Dempsey for an example of something new and exciting made possible by building from the ground up with Wanda's seemingly bottomless bud-

'You know everyone's biggest complaint at work back in L.A.?" he replies after a pause. "Parking."

'That won't be a problem here," he notes. "We have plenty of elbow room in Qingdao." (Courtesy http://www.hollywoodreporter.com/)

Neketta Shafer sits in her flood-damaged living room after volunteers from Habitat for Humanity helped remove drywall.

By Guest Writer Deborah Mann Lake

It's 2 a.m. on Aug. 28. Though I've been in bed only two hours, I get up to make the rounds of the house checking for water. For days, Hurricane Harvey has wreaked havoc on Texas, swallowing entire chunks of Houston in deluging bands of rain, and with the proximity of Cypress Creek to my northwest Harris County home, I know we could be next. My street already resembles a lake - not exactly the water-front property I wanted.

Front door? Check. Dining room windows? Check. I go around the house. Master closets? Water. My heart beating furiously, I spring into action.

Hours earlier, the first signs that this home purchased 44 years ago by my husband's family - and never flooded - might not remain dry this time had gurgled up through the sunken garden tub.

At the sight, my stomach dropped and fear shot through my system. I tried to take a normal breath and calm down as my body and mind began to go through something as old as the human race itself - the fightor-flight response.

I began to realize in the days after our home flooded that I was having trouble processing information. It was like my brain was in slow motion. To understand what was going on, I asked friends in the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences for recommendations on who would know.

I figured I couldn't be the only person whose mind was in a stuttering state.

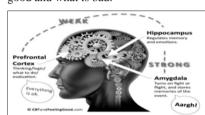

"A TRAUMATIC event activates the fear center in the brain," explained Madhavi K. Reddy, Ph.D., a fellow UTHealth employee and faculty member at McGovern Medical School, who I called two weeks after my family was evacuated by boat.

"The amygdala begins firing rapidly, and if it's in overdrive, it's harder for us to use Commentary executive functioning skills to reason and react."

I learned that the amygdala is the integrative center for emotions, emotional behavior and motivation, according to Neuroscience Online, an open-access electronic textbook for the neurosciences provided by the Department for Neurobiology and Anatomy at McGovern Medical School.

The amygdala produces the autonomic - automatic physical - components of emotion such as changes in heart rate, blood pressure and respiration through pathways to the lateral hypothalamus and brain stem. The link between several parts of the brain – the prefrontal cortex, septal area, hypothalamus and amygdala – is the likely cause of the "gut feeling" we get, as well as subjective feelings about what is good and what is bad.

So you might say it's a no-brainer that water coming inside the house is bad, but the brain is actually doing all that work to let you come to that conclusion.

When faced with a traumatic event, some people experience an instant "freeze" that comes naturally to animals and humans before you launch into action as the amygdala begins the chain of reactions that will result in the release of cortisol and adren-

All I knew was that I was emptying bathroom cabinets and the hall closet of every towel, blanket and sheet in an attempt to hold the water back as it began spreading from closets into the bathroom and master bedroom. Another flow began around the chimney – of all places – puddling in the hall bathroom and under the brick in the down.

But as the rain kept falling, our hopes diminished. A woman sloshed up in thighdeep water to ask us if we wanted to leave. We watched as an older neighbor and her dog left in a boat. One of my twins caught the moment she waved to the neighbors across the street.

When my husband saw a boat accompanied by Harris County Precinct IV constable deputies, he said we needed to listen to them before making a decision. It might be time to throw in the towel, so to speak. We had three dogs, including a rescue greyhound that belongs to my sister who was marooned on a cruise ship that couldn't get back to Galveston. The dogs had sloshed through water to take care of their business earlier in the day, but if the water kept rising, that could become impossible. Sanitation was going to become a problem for man and beast alike.

The deputy said we needed to leave "now." Cypress Creek was going up another foot. They gave us 20 minutes to get the dogs, the two cats and the twins ready to roll. I tried not to think about my husband, a liver transplant patient, slogging through filthy water. We stepped into water and waded to the boat.

Rescue vehicles drive through a neighborhood off Cypress Creek as floodwaters rise during Harvey on Tuesday, Aug. 29, 2017.

Cortisol and adrenaline got me through it. The boat, which belonged to a volunteer and had last seen action during duck hunting season, reached the end of our street. We got a good look at Moore Elementary School, which the Cy-Fair School District would have to close for several months to repair the damage.

Blocks away, the boat dropped us near a high-water rescue truck, where once again ladder. These first responders didn't hesitate to lift our dogs again. There was never a question about leaving them behind.

The rescue truck brought us, along with another family, to St. Mary's Episcopal Church Cypress, which had opened its doors as a respite stop. It was our church. We saw a family we knew almost immediately, and they took us in for the night. The next day, we went to live with another family and stayed there nearly a week.

WE WERE high and dry. But, Reddy said, other stresses can be stacked on top of the original experience, like whether someone has flood insurance or can return home.

I was alarmed when I suddenly blanked out on my Social Security number and names were hard to capture. One of our priests, whose home didn't flood but was inaccessible for more than a week, said he suddenly couldn't remember words to The Lord's Prayer, which he had said thousands and thousands of times.

"During the immediate stressful event and in the aftermath, you are going to have disruptions in emotional reactions as your brain tries to reason through what occurred," said Reddy, a post-traumatic stress disorder researcher at UTHealth and clinician with UT Physicians. "It also matters how long the secondary stresses go on as you deal with basic needs – food, shelter and clothing. These secondary stressors can make the impact linger and that takes up space in your brain, which slows things down." Even as people are able to return to homes and work, the brain will still be working overtime behind the scenes.

"The learning experience of what happened begins in the brain. You live in a world where something happened that had never happened before, and you have to make sense of it in some way," Reddy said. "You will adjust your worldview, or you will adjust the world to fit your view." She said people might have nightmares or be easily irritated or short-tempered. They might become forgetful, drop a thought in the middle of a sentence, take longer to absorb information. They might be numb. "It's important that people give themselves space to have reactions, to let their emotions out. It's OK to feel sadness or anger," Reddy said. "Pushing it down and bottling it up are not adaptive in the long run. Self-care is really important, as is acknowledging that you went through something really scary.'

Even if you weathered the storm with your home untouched, you went through a significant event and people "shouldn't get out measuring sticks, literally, to compare themselves with others," she said. "Survivor's guilt is a real thing."

Water covered the floor in two-thirds of our home, the deepest parts two inches. Flooring and drywall had to be ripped out of three rooms. We're waiting to see if the wood floors have to be replaced.

Neither my husband nor I is sleeping through the night as we continue to pro-

If you are still experiencing problems in functioning or if the problems are affecting relationships with other people for more than a month, Reddy recommends seeking professional help.

Avoid using alcohol or drugs to cope, she said. Instead, do things you enjoy – watching movies, taking walks. "Humans are resilient and will withstand what we've endured," she said. "It's important to not over-pathologize what is going on. You need to give yourself time."

So that old saying, "time heals," really means something?

"Yes," she said. (Courtesy chron.com)

Flooded homeowner sues Chase Bank for advising against buying flood insurance

By L.M. Sixel

Deola Ali bought a house in Kingwood six years ago and didn't buy flood insurance after the his mortgage lender said he didn't need it because the property wasn't in a flood plain. But the house took on about three feet of water last month during Hurricane Harvey, causing more than $200,000 in damages. Ali, a lawyer in Houston, is now suing the lender, JP Morgan Chase, alleging that the bank unlawfully engaged in the practice of insurance without a license when it made the recommendation. He is seeking unspecified actual and punitive damages, including money to fix his home.

"Everything is destroyed," said Ali. "A lot of people who don't have the expertise or background should not be advising people they are not in the flood zone." The lawsuit, if successful, may provide a legal argument to recover property damages for thousands of Houstonians who were flooded by Harvey but didn't have flood insurance, legal specialists said.

"I can't see how a financial institution is giving insurance advice without the proper credentials to do so," said Dan Barton, an insurance trial lawyer in Houston. If the facts are true, Barton believes Ali has a compelling case that stands a good chance of prevailing. Banks require borrowers to take out flood insurance if their homes are in the flood plain to protect the loans. But homeowners don't have to buy the special insurance coverage if their homes are outside of the federally-drawn 100 year flood zones.

Legal specialists predict that flooded homeowners will come up novel ways to bring flood claims against developers, lenders, government agencies and others who could be ultimately held responsible for damag-

When Ali bought his house six years ago, he submitted several insurance coverage plans, including flood insurance, to Chase Bank, the retail bank of JP Morgan Chase, according to the lawsuit. Ali removed the flood insurance protection when he was advised by Chase that the house was not in a flood zone, advice that Ali calls "false, misleading, and an unlawful practice of insurance," according to the lawsuit.

"The corps has been discussing this but no one took it beyond that – not in term of disclosing it to the neighborhoods and certainly took no steps to offer to purchase a federal flood easement in exchange for some money," Irvine said.

A recent informational meeting about the case drew more than 100 homeowners from Canyon Gate and from other subdivisions that flooded during Hurricane Harvey, attorneys said. Irvine said that only five raised their hands when he asked who had flood insurance. In Mississippi and Louisiana, the Corps has taken steps to inform people and compensate those whose property could be subject to inundation in areas near levees and rivers. Irvine said.

That was never done with the West Houston dams. The reason may be that such a step in the 1980s or in the '90s would have stopped the march of development, said attorney Jim Blackburn, who has filed other lawsuits arguing that the region's flood control rules were insufficient to protect homeowners and the environment.

The Corps' original plans included a third dam and additional property that was never acquired. In the 1940s, it didn't matter much if, in a downpour, a large pool suddenly spread across the grasslands of the Katy Prairie to spare the Bayou City downstream from harm.

Over the years, public officials continued to approve developments around both reservoirs even after the Corps' own measurements recorded record flood pools time after time. Ten of the 11 largest pools in the reservoirs' history have been measured since 1990. Harvey generated the largest.

The Corps allowed the city of Houston, Harris and Fort Bend counties and the state to build major roads and parks inside the reservoirs. George Bush and Bear Creek are the largest parks. Barker Reservoir includes a smaller War Memorial developed by Fort Bend County. Then there's Millie Bush Bark Park; Bill Archer Dog Park; the Bear Creek Community Center; a 54-hole golf course; a zoo with a bison; a shooting range; a model airplane facility; paved parking; and a YMCA camp.

Fort Bend County officials added small-print warnings about the flood pools to subdivision maps beginning in 1994: "This subdivision is adjacent to Barker Reservoir and is subject to extended controlled inundation under the management of the U.S. Army Corps of engineers."

But few home buyers consult the maps, known as plats. Harris County, which has far more homes threatened by the flood pool, never included any advisories about the reservoirs on its plats.

Harris County Commissioner Steve Raddack said he didn't believe warnings were necessary. He said all Harris County homeowners should be aware of risks of flooding posed by the area's many creeks and bayous - and by the reservoirs. Raddack said that for 20 years he had been warning constituents about the flood pool – but most paid little attention. "We knew the water would leave the federally controlled land and would flood neighborhoods in Fort Bend and Harris counties. The reservoir had never been tested to capacity," he said.

梁家輝(左)與劉青雲鬼馬地大 玩HeHe

梁家輝形容高圓圓似女神。

現場播出了兩分鐘花絮片段,當中的 演員有金城武、古天樂、鮑起靜、 盧海鵬及林俊賢等,陣容鼎盛。劇組更 在惠州搭建一比一的香港銅鑼灣街景, 營造落雪效果。

有很獨特的要求及堅持。

青雲坦言與 Juno 合作,每日都好有驚喜,因他

在台上表示,早前出席威尼斯影展時已 構思劇本,用了5年創作劇本,他笑指戲 中有很多難以想像的畫面,因有一些效 果難以在香港實景中做到,其中一幕是 要在銅鑼灣營造落雪效果,故此在惠州 搭建一比一的銅鑼灣場景拍攝。説到有 指製作費高達港幣1億5千萬, Juno 只透 露製作費過億,對確實數字保持神秘。

去東京找金城武談合作

問到影片演員陣容龐大,是否難以 控制?Juno表示不難,最難反而是組成 演員團隊的過程,這部分用了兩年時 間。他又提到當年親身分別去東京與金

城武,及去北京跟高圓圓見面談合作, 其中飾演心理學家的高圓圓,因為從未 接觸過類似角色,收到劇本後不久就決 定接拍。他又大讚每一個演員都好好, 做到他的要求。《風》是合拍片,Juno 繼《殭屍》後再次執導電影的Juno 指劇本沒有太多改動,都是朝自己創作 方向去行,現時影片仍在拍攝階段,希 望能在今年內完成。

> 劉青雲在台上笑言當初以為《風林 火山》是古裝片,試造型時又要穿厚毛 衣,以為要到哈爾濱拍攝,想不到是在 夏天的香港和惠州拍攝,感到很熱。

> 青雲受訪時透露戲中曾有很多故事 的警察,故不乏槍戰動作戲,談到跟麥 浚龍(Juno)合作,他表示Juno很有禮 貌,又好清楚角色,因為劇本是他自己 寫,跟他合作每日都好有驚喜,因他有 很獨特的要求及堅持,但就會很善良解 釋對角色的看法。問到是否可以改對 白?青雲笑説: "有需要時都會提出, 他都會接受意見,但最後Juno會堅持自 己的看法。"

梁家輝與高圓圓在片中飾演一位為 警隊服務的心理專家,與高圓圓是亦師 亦友亦敵的微妙關係,28日兩人同台, 家輝表示與高圓圓第一次合作拍電影, 但兩人之前在拍賣會上也曾見過面,家 輝指當時圓圓坐在身旁,像女神一樣。 高圓圓表示當時穿得較少布,場地又較 凍,家輝便除掉外套讓她披住,令她感 到很溫暖。

高圓圓努力學廣東話

訪問時,家輝笑指高圓圓是"神 級"難以文字形容,又大讚對方勤力。 高圓圓在戲中以廣東話演出,拍攝時也 沒有NG太多,因之後亦會後期配音,故 夾到口型就可以,她表示有跟老師學 習,之後會繼續努力學習。

家輝透露在戲中要化"爛面"妝,

每次要花3個半鐘上妝,卸妝時又要用一 個鐘,辛苦了一班化妝師,慶幸沒有皮 膚敏感。

便寫了五年。

戲中家輝除了有很多動作戲需要吊 威亞,又要在夏天拍着大褸落雪戲,不 過他就笑謂沒東西可以難倒他。首次跟 Juno 合作,家輝直言很感動: "難得香 港有個這麼有誠意的新導演,未來香港 電影有救,港片之所以衰落,是因為好 多崗位在黃金時期沒有把機會給第二梯 隊頂上。"高圓圓則大讚Juno有禮貌又 友善,並很體貼,當他見到演員們穿上 厚衣服拍戲,都會穿上厚衣陪大家。

衛詩雅表示第一次拍動作片及第一次 開真槍,其中有場戲要跳上家輝哥背脊借 力追賊,她怕會整傷家輝哥及傷及其腰部 舊患,但對方堅持要親身上陣,事前又叫 她放心盡力跳,令她十分佩服對方的專 業。同樣是首次拍動作戲的姜珮瑤,拍攝 前要接受動作特訓,吃了不少苦頭。

劉嘉玲嫌置業麻煩 寧營商

香港文匯報訊(記者李慶 全) 賀歲電影《我的情敵女婿》28 資物業,不過自己跟他有不同的想 日在大埔林村許願樹拍攝一場過年 法,會覺得多物業反而是一個負 舞龍舞獅的大場面,演員劉嘉玲、 任達華、泳兒、鍾舒漫、姜皓文、 唐詩詠及麥玲玲等參與演出。

但28日酷熱天氣下,任達華 晨早六點到來拍攝,雖然只穿T恤 演出,仍拍到大汗淋漓,他苦笑指 差不多每隔一個小時要換一件衣 服,拍到下午已换了有十件衣服。 劉嘉玲穿長袖外套演出依然氣定神 閑,華哥笑説: "有女神在這裡特 別熱情,令到我出汗,簡直是熱過 頭呀!"嘉玲笑答華哥:"我在北 京拍徐克的戲也不小呀,拍戲就是 如此啦,無得投訴!"

華哥於戲中演一位"劏房大 王",後來給嘉玲這位女神影響變 為好人,將劏房豪裝之後平租以兩 蚊出租給年輕人,電影很正能量: 他也相信拍戲也會有朝成真!他更 指自己有錢的話也會平租給人去做 生意,記者笑他全世界都有物業已 經是有錢人,華哥直言: "我都有 平租給租客啊!否則也不一直租到 現在,即使舖位都租了10多年, 證明我是個好業主!"問嘉玲會否 效法華哥要物業遍佈全世界?華哥 即搶着說:"她一間頂我30間

擔,要去住人又要請工人,更要給 管理書、維修書, 這是相當麻煩的 事情,所以隨着年紀增長,思想都 改變中,現在投資方面會比較冒 險,所以選擇去做生意。

嘉玲任監製主演沒收片酬

談到今次電影中有不少演員 和歌手來客串,每個都向嘉玲集 郵,嘉玲笑説:"導演集得最多, 環經常放在社交網上, 不過今次拍 賀歲片最開心,是可以遇到很多舊 同事、老朋友!"華哥也贊同説: "今次見到很多TVB舊同事,也 有不少新歌手,拍一部戲感覺就像 拍了50部那麼多,真的很開 心!"

另提到由劉嘉玲首任監製及 主演、吳肇軒、謝君豪和余香凝等 演出的電影《以青春的名義》獲選 為香港亞洲電影節2017之開幕電 影及競賽電影之一,嘉玲坦言很有 鼓勵性,因為覺得現在拍戲很艱 難,很難才找到投資人,因為沒錢 去拍就寸步難行很不容易,所以有 資金的話自然會有專業人士參與。 而今次這部戲她自己沒收片酬,張

任達華拍到大汗淋漓,劉嘉玲

依然氣定神閑

叔平來幫手剪片也沒收錢,就連攝 影師都是義務拍攝,她説: "香港 是有技術人才,但要遷就市場的問 題,現都要拍合拍片,不過能拍出 好戲來總會有觀眾的,否則56億 (人民幣) 票房怎樣出來的呢!"

華哥也認同說: "只要有新鮮的題 材,香港電影永遠是有自己特色

拍吻戲發口香糖? 唐詩詠自揭曾給袁偉豪

香港文匯報訊(記者李慶全)姜皓文在 《我的情敵女婿》中演任達華從小到大的死對 頭,但經常給華哥欺負,就連一同喜歡的女神 也給華哥爭贏。唐詩詠則飾演華哥的助手去幫 他處理好與不好的事情。

1人29日百度合作,即要親密接觸拍吻 戲,還要有初戀一撻即着的感覺,但29日在大 埔林村烈日當空下拍攝,詩詠笑説: "真的是 水乳交融!"黑仔亦笑言知道詩詠曾經跟一些 比較抗拒的對手,會發口香糖,幸好當日沒發 給他。詩詠即帶點尷尬笑説: "通常對手都好 好,不過都有些會收到口香糖,我都有發過給 袁偉豪,因他太喜歡飲咖啡又忘記了自己有咖 啡味!"問有否試過對手口臭留下陰影?詩詠 笑説: "其實要拍親熱戲,自己都會先做些準

,今次是一拍就拍親嘴的場面,不過黑哥很 好!"黑仔即笑笑口説:"正呀!"

另談及日前田蕊妮生日,詩詠為對方做了 蛋糕去慶祝,更以Super Woman為主題,她指 阿田於工作上與朋友心目中也的確是位 Super-

蘇麗珊讚保養得宜 小方後悔沒加親熱戲

至於小方與蘇麗珊在戲中親熱戲不多,他笑指自己大對方 12年 大足一圈的生肖,故不想被網友鬧爆,也沒向導演要求加親熱戲, 但現在開始後悔了,蘇麗珊即醒目地讚小方保養得宜,年齡差距也 不算大。而除他倆以外,"游生"袁文傑亦同是肖猴,小方都不禁 讚袁文傑説: "我們都保持得好,似凍齡了都是三十多歲!"
