Tight U.S. labor market shrinks gender and race gaps to record lows

NEW YORK (Reuters) - A tight U.S. labor market and booming demand in industries with an abundance of female workers is drawing more women back into the workforce, helping to shrink the longstanding gap in the labor participation rate between men and women to the narrowest on record.

Other parts of a report released by the Labor Department on Friday showed that the longest economic expansion on record is leading to improvements for workers who are often left on the sidelines. Not only did the unemployment rate for African Americans drop to a record low of 5.5% in August, it narrowed to being 1.62 times the white unemployment rate, the smallest gap ever.

The share of women aged 25 to 54 who either have jobs or are looking for work rose by a full percentage point in August to 76.3%, according to the report. The gain helped to lift the overall labor participation rate to 63.2%, one of the bright spots in a monthly jobs report otherwise riddled with signs of a softening U.S. economy.

“What we’re seeing is the benefits of a strong labor market,” said Nick Bunker, an economist at the Indeed Hire Lab. “Workers who in the past have been shut out of the labor market, including women, workers of color and workers with disabilities have seen increasing gains.”
While the share of men who are working or looking for jobs is still higher at 89%, participation has been growing more strongly for women over the past several years.
Women are benefiting because they have a stronger presence in rapidly growing sectors such as health care and education, Bunker said. The education and health services sector, where women hold roughly three of every four jobs, added 32,000 jobs in August, topped only by the professional services and government sectors. However, many of those jobs are often low paying, contributing to the overall gender wage gap.
The labor participation rate for men, in contrast, has stalled since the recession because men tend to work disproportionately in sectors such as manufacturing, which suffered greatly during the downturn, said Mark Zandi, chief economist at Moody’s Analytics.
The labor participation rate for men is now 12.7 percentage points higher than women, down from 13.4 percentage points a year earlier, and the lowest since 1950.
That gap could continue to shrink as women benefit from college degrees, which they are more likely to hold than men, Zandi said.
The labor participation rate for women increased steadily after the 1950s as more women entered the workforce, but the trend stopped in 2000 when the labor force participation rate for women peaked at 77%.
Progress stalled in the United States as some women were hindered by expensive child care and other long-standing challenges, including the gender pay gap, Zandi said.

After bottoming at 73% in 2015, the participation rate for women is rising again and finally approaching the highs seen almost two decades ago.

“This highlights why it’s so important to have a strong economy because it helps those that really have struggled for many decades,” Zandi said.

Hope grows for deal to avoid U.S. tariffs on Mexican goods

WASHINGTON (Reuters) - Hope grew on Wednesday for a deal to avoid the United States imposing tariffs on Mexican goods in return for Mexico doing more to halt illegal immigration but President Donald Trump said he was willing to go ahead with the import duties if he is not satisfied.

Trump said he thinks Mexico wants to reach an agreement to stop a new trade war - one that analysts believe might tip its economy into a recession - while a White House trade adviser and senior Republican U.S. lawmaker predicted that Washington might not introduce the proposed tariffs.

“Mexico can stop it. They have to stop it, otherwise we just won’t be able to do business. It’s a very simple thing. And I think they will stop it. I think they want to do something. I think they want to make a deal, and they sent their top people to try and do it,” Trump said at the start of a visit to Ireland.

U.S. pushes Mexico to take more asylum seekers, tighten controls: sources

Frustrated by the lack of progress on a signature issue from his 2016 election campaign, Trump unexpectedly told Mexico last week to take a harder line on curbing illegal immigration or face 5% tariffs on all its exports to the United States starting on Monday, rising to as much as 25% later in the year.

Mexican officials will seek to persuade the White House in talks hosted by U.S. Vice President Mike Pence on Wednesday that their government has done enough to stem immigration and avoid tariffs. Mexican President Andres Manuel Lopez Obrador said he was optimistic the talks can end in an agreement.

Trump said he would go ahead with the tariffs if Mexico does not do more to control migratio

Lopez Obrador has received an official list of U.S. products that could be subject to retaliatory tariffs if the duties threatened by Trump take effect, officials said in Mexico City.

Trump has faced resistance within his own Republican Party over the threatened tariffs, with many lawmakers concerned about the potential impact on cross-border trade and on U.S. businesses and consumers.

Compiled And Edited By John T. Robbins, Southern Daily Editor

After the two mass shootings last weekend, gun violence has displaced immigration as the most-talked about news topic on social media for the first time since May, according to data from NewsWhip provided exclusively to Southern Daily via Axios.

Why it matters: The emotional intensity of gun violence makes it a topic that generates ferocious debate and calls for action on social media after a high-profile event. Yet the activism is cyclical, and the issue has yet to be a defining issue in elections.

Between the lines: Video games were the topic adjacent to the shooting that generated the most interactions (retweets, likes, comments, shares) on Facebook and Twitter (2.08M) for stories written on the Saturday of the shootings as well as the following two days. These pieces were largely blowback against President Trump and House Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy for comments that video games were to blame for the shootings.

Other countries with similar or higher rates of video game playing have lower rates of shootings.

Other topics we examined that were related to the shooting included white supremacy, white nationalism, domestic terrorism, 8chan and mental illness.

The big picture: Unlike most other hot-button political topics, most of the stories that went the farthest about the weekend shootings were straightforward breaking news headlines without partisan tilt.

Accounts of heroism were the genre of non-breaking news that generated the most interactions.

2020 candidates: While many of the 2020 Democrats sought to place responsibility for the shootings on Trump, these stories largely didn't break through. Among the 75 biggest stories about guns and shootings from last week (which included the Gilroy Garlic shooting from the previous weekend) only two of these stories were about comments from 2020 candidates:

Pete Buttigieg: America 'Under Attack From Homegrown White Nationalist Terrorists' (HuffPost, 147k interactions)

Beto O'Rourke: Trump's 'racism' leads to violence like El Paso mass shooting (CNN, 93k)

The mass shootings were the biggest story for just 5 of the candidates on the week that included the second debate. Three of those 5 came from conservative outlets.

Our 2020 attention tracker is based on data from NewsWhip exclusively provided to Axios as part of a project that will regularly update throughout the 2020 campaign.

Why this tracker matters: The data on interactions — including likes, comments and shares — highlights an important, but under-appreciated element of an election: the ability to see beyond our own social feeds and understand the broader universe playing out of how candidates and issues are moving the minds of voters.

It measures enthusiasm in a way that traditional polling does not.

The sample size taken from these social media platforms is massive.

Social media is powered by emotion-driven content, and emotional responses are likely to be aligned with a voter's true beliefs in a way that can be masked in polling.

While the volume of interactions does not gauge the sentiment of the reactions, the ability to generate reach allows a candidate to expand the universe of potential voters.

Bots also cannot be ignored, and we will point out in this space if there are documented instances of bot activity for certain candidates or issues.

Methodology: This project measures

the number of social media interactions generated on stories published about the 2020 candidates and issues.

Interactions are calculated from reactions, comments and shares on those stories on Facebook as well as the number of shares from more than 300,000 influential Twitter accounts and retweets and likes on those posts.

Tracked published stories come from a defined universe of more than 450,000 domains.

A story registers for a candidate or issue if the keyword is mentioned in the headline, summary or URL of the story.

Our search format for candidates looks like: "Joe Biden" OR ("Biden" AND ("President" OR "2020" OR "election" OR "Democrats" OR "primary"))).

For issues, we use a keyword tree for related terms.

See past editions of the tracker here: <https://www.axios.com/2020-attention-tracker-library-3c8f61f3-a64c-4473-ac32-3ea76d525770.html>

Among the 75 biggest stories about guns and shootings from last week (which included the Gilroy Garlic shooting from the previous weekend) only two of these stories were about comments from 2020 candidates:

Pete Buttigieg: America 'Under Attack From Homegrown White Nationalist Terrorists' (HuffPost, 147k interactions)

Beto O'Rourke: Trump's 'racism' leads to violence like El Paso mass shooting (CNN, 93k)

The mass shootings were the biggest story for just 5 of the candidates on the week that included the second debate. Three of those 5 came from conservative outlets.

Our 2020 attention tracker is based on data from NewsWhip exclusively provided to Axios as part of a project that will regularly update throughout the 2020 campaign.

Why this tracker matters: The data on interactions — including likes, comments and shares — highlights an important, but under-appreciated element of an election: the ability to see beyond our own social feeds and understand the broader universe playing out of how candidates and issues are moving the minds of voters.

It measures enthusiasm in a way that traditional polling does not.

The sample size taken from these social media platforms is massive.

Social media is powered by emotion-driven content, and emotional responses are likely to be aligned with a voter's true beliefs in a way that can be masked in polling.

While the volume of interactions does not gauge the sentiment of the reactions, the ability to generate reach allows a candidate to expand the universe of potential voters.

Bots also cannot be ignored, and we will point out in this space if there are documented instances of bot activity for certain candidates or issues.

Methodology: This project measures

the number of social media interactions generated on stories published about the 2020 candidates and issues.

Interactions are calculated from reactions, comments and shares on those stories on Facebook as well as the number of shares from more than 300,000 influential Twitter accounts and retweets and likes on those posts.

Tracked published stories come from a defined universe of more than 450,000 domains.

A story registers for a candidate or issue if the keyword is mentioned in the headline, summary or URL of the story.

Our search format for candidates looks like: "Joe Biden" OR ("Biden" AND ("President" OR "2020" OR "election" OR "Democrats" OR "primary"))).

For issues, we use a keyword tree for related terms.

返校斥資百萬 搭建翠華中學 帶領你重回惡夢

全球暢銷遊戲改編電影「返校」首度試片後獲得一致好評！為了讓更多觀眾先感受「返校」威力，電影公司斥資百萬在西門町電影公園打造「翠華中學」，明日下午 14:00 至 20:00 正式對外開放，展覽期間從 9 月 7 日至 9 月 29 日，全程免費參觀，大家可以先到「翠華中學」一睹為快。

導演徐漢強今天也先來搶先體驗，他一走進去就像重溫拍片時光，他說：「有一種惡夢又回來的感覺了。」展覽館用了許多當時拍片道具，就連教官在現場出現都讓人覺得仿佛真的教官在現場一樣。

除此之外，這次更邀請臺北多元藝術空間青少年發展促進會（藝青會）的傅星翰，為體驗館設計「防空洞區教官牆面」：以整面牆突顯教官威嚴的形象，一進門就能感受到被無形的雙眼監視，在那個年代追求自由的過程中背負無形卻真實的壓力；「教室區自由之樹」：以舊書，文集，以及戒嚴時代的報紙事件組成的自由之樹，人們追求自由過程中堆疊起來的希望，在無數的大小事件中希望萌芽，變成枝幹，果實，樹葉，象徵自由根深蒂固並成長茁壯，但過程很長並且辛苦，而需要相當的付出。

拍電影賠錢潛規則 龍劭華要狠塞女友當女一

日前才入圍金鐘獎 2 獎項的演員龍劭華，在國片「江湖無難事」裡扮演霸氣又幽默的黑道大哥，不但過足戲癮，更率領一幫笑將與實力派演員惡搞電影圈。

今天公佈角色版預告，再度讓電影更「ㄅㄞ」的一面展現出來，一開場便是邱澤在冷凍的空間中顫抖的模樣，十足吸睛，他以製片豪洩的身份來訴說電影故事，他與導演文西（穩死）為了拍電影賠到「脫褲」，不得不加入龍劭華旗下的黑社會來還債，卻意外獲得拍電影的機會，龍劭華便以氣勢萬千的黑社會金主之姿出現，逼導演要用小女友姚以緹當電影女主角。

預告中也可以見到黑社會組織成員顏正國、黃尚禾、吳震亞和鋼鐵爸，還有幫助邱澤拍片的梁赫群及阿喜（林育品），再加上陳漢典，各個都是實力派及搞笑高手，都各有特色的亮相！最後更不忘這部電影的中心思想「奧斯卡夢」，

接連出現讓人意外的獎項，「最佳影騙」、「最佳倒演」、「最佳女煮腳」、「最佳鞭劇」，再加上結尾的大爆炸，可說是「ㄅㄞ」到最高點！

龍劭華表示最初拿到劇本覺得這個題材台灣很少見，而且也很難拍，「有不少大場面，臨演至少也是要個 100 多人，還有活屍。」但他覺得這次拍攝經驗很特殊，「我第一次和導演高炳權及其他演員合作，拍起來很愉快，大家感情都很好。」

龍劭華累積演技深厚功力，才在剛揭曉的金鐘入圍名單中一人獨佔男主角和男配角兩項大獎提名，非常風光，而在「江湖無難事」龍劭華電影中竟然負責唯一一條的「愛情線」，和女主角有情感交流的角色，導演高炳權說：「角色直接就是叫龍哥，當初我就是鎖定請龍劭華演出。」他對龍劭華的專業精神印象深刻，「我們第一場戲，龍哥就脫到只剩內褲，但他配合度超高，很直接、大方。」

雖然表面搞笑，但龍劭華演出的黑道大哥也有老謀深算及心狠手辣的一面，讓龍劭華展現多面向的演技深度，讓他特別鼓勵劇組，「我一直鼓勵導演，《江湖無難事》的題材非常的新，很特別。我們可以朝金馬獎努力，需要的話，我可以多拍一點，整部作品就要拍精緻一點。」而片中他還有一群手下，也都是實力派演員，演起黑道說服力十足，包括顏正國、黃尚禾、吳震亞及鋼鐵爸，眾人時而要狠，時而搞笑，讓電影內容更為豐富。

此片也入選 釜山影展亞洲之窗，導演感言：「覺得有點豪洩，想不到這個在停紅綠燈時想到個故事概念，竟被拍了出來，然後還被釜山影展認證！沒想過這支片會跟影展們結緣，謝謝釜山影展，謝謝一起努力的夥伴們，謝謝家人，江湖真的無難事。」

第 76 屆威尼斯影展於 8 月底開跑，鞏俐與趙又廷主演、婁燁執導的「蘭心大劇院」入圍此影展主競賽，兩人有望爭帝后。該片於台灣時間昨（5 日）凌晨舉辦首映，除了主演還有同片演出的小田切讓都走上紅毯，吸引不少鎂光燈。

趙又廷穿著酒紅絲絨西裝到場，在記者會上以流利英文向國際媒體打招呼，看完首映的他表示：「感覺非常好，跟導演以往的作品感覺不太一樣。劇情很強，人物的狀態掌握得很好。攝影很美，黑白色調調整部片增色不少。我自己很喜歡。俐姊完美！很有魅力。」至於如何看待自己的表演？趙又廷說：「我看到了一個陌生的趙又廷，看不出來是自己演的，我覺得這點非常好。」

初訪威尼斯的趙又廷也成了水都好奇寶，處處都是新鮮事，他說：「威尼斯果真名不虛傳，一個迷宮般的城市等著你去四處去探索，

特別的交通方式讓這一切顯得更有意思。我沒來過這樣的城市，感覺很好、很特別。」他結束威尼斯影展行程後，6 日將再飛往多倫多，行程滿檔的他會不時透過手機裡女兒的照片抒發思念，相當暖心。

鞏俐身穿超低胸露乳、露腿裝牽著老公走紅毯，期間還有不少鞏俐的外國粉絲到會場應援，更有人手持中文小卡片入鏡，整齊地寫著「鞏俐！我在太陽下，等了你 3 小時！」，意外成為話題。
