Ignoring Ukraine setbacks, Putin touts 'superior' Russian weapons exports

LONDON, Aug 15 (Reuters) - President Vladimir Putin said on Monday that Russia was ready to sell advanced weapons to allies globally and cooperate in developing military technology, nearly six months into the Ukraine war in which his army has performed worse than expected.

With its forces beaten back from Ukraine's two biggest cities and making slow headway at heavy cost in eastern provinces, the war has so far proved an unconvincing showcase for Russia's arms industry. read more

But Putin, addressing an arms show outside Moscow, insisted Russian weaponry was years ahead of the competition.

Russia cherished its strong ties with Latin America, Asia and Africa and was ready to supply allies there with a full gamut of weapons from small arms to armoured vehicles, artillery, combat aircraft and drones, he said. "Almost all of them have been used more than once in real combat operations."

He said Russia's offer included high-precision weapons and robotics. "Many of them are years, or maybe decades ahead of their foreign counterparts, and in terms of tactical and technical characteristics they are significantly superior to them."

Russia ranks second only to the United States with arms sales of around $15 billion a year, nearly a fifth of the global export market. From 2017-2021, 73% of those sales went to just four countries - India, China, Egypt and Algeria - according to the Stockholm International Peace Research Institute.

'POOR ADVERTISEMENT'

Western military analysts said Russia's struggles against a much smaller adversary in Ukraine could undermine Putin's sales pitch.

"With the collapse of economic relations with the West, Russia is even more dependent on the arms trade than it was before, so it's not surprising that Putin is so keen to promote them to as many non-Western customers as he can," said Ruth Deyermond, senior lecturer in the Department of War Studies at King's College London.

"The big problem for him is that Russia's war against Ukraine has been a disaster for Russian military credibility - their performance has been a very poor advertisement for their weapons."

Asked which Russian weapons systems had performed worst in Ukraine, retired U.S. General Ben Hodges cited assessments by U.S.defence officials that Russia was suffering failure rates as high as 60% for some of its precision-guided missiles.

Western sanctions imposed against Russia also raised questions about its ability to source components and provide maintenance for the weapons it sells, added Hodges, a former commander of U.S. Army forces in in the Russian-annexed Crimean peninsula last week that destroyed at least eight aircraft on the ground, according to satellite images.

Nevertheless, Putin said the forces of Russia and its proxies in the Donbas region of eastern Ukraine were fulfilling all their tasks.

"Step by step they are liberating the land of Donbas," he said.

Russia calls the invasion that began on Feb. 24 a "special military operation" to demilitarise its smaller neighbour and protect Russian-speaking communities. Ukraine and its allies accuse Moscow of waging an unprovoked war to capture territory.

Europe.

"I'd be very concerned as a prospective buyer about the quality of the equipment and the ability of the Russian Federation industry to sustain it," he said.

Ukraine has made effective use of U.S.-supplied weaponry, especially the High Mobility Artillery Rocket System (HIMARS), and Russia has taken a series of major blows. These include explosions at an airbase

WEALEE'S GLOBAL NOTES

Congress Passes The Inflation Reduction Act

With a vote of 220-207, the House of Representatives passed the $750 billion healthcare, energy and climate bill. This represents a victory for President Joe Biden and this bill represents a milestone for Democrats and gives the party a chance to achieve a long-sought policy objective ahead of the upcoming midterm elections. This bill also represents the largest climate change and healthcare policy by giving Medicare the power to negotiate the price of drugs.

We are happy to see the passage of this anti-inflation act, but we still need to watch how the money will be raised to pay for it.

Educator Dr. Ji Jiafeng Has Passed Away

Professor Ji Jiafeng has passed away. Her husband, My Yang Jia Hwa, who has been married for many decades also passed away not too long ago. This model couple in the Houston Chinese community has made extraordinary contributions for many years, leaving their legacy and gratitude for everyone.

I once read her book, "Hello Houston," which guided the couple to grow up in the most difficult days in China, including the era of the culture revolution.

The whole family many times ate only rice with soy sauce, but by the time she came to the United States, through hard work, she became a professor in the university. This is a very important success story for the new immigrant. Now she will be united with her husband in Heaven. It should be a good ending with no regrets.

For more than one hundred years, due to war and civil war in China, many Chinese left their country to seek a better life. Professor Ji was one of them.

Our community lost one of its leaders. Her contributions will be remembered forever.

More Than 70 Organizations Have Signed, Calling To Fund Refugee Efforts In Ukraine And Globally

"Stand Up For Ukraine" - An Open Letter Calls On World Leaders To Take Urgent Action for Refugees

Compiled And Edited By John T. Robbins, Southern Daily Editor

Since Russia began its invasion of Ukraine on Feb. 24, more than 10 million people in the country have been forcibly displaced — leading to the fastest growing refugee crisis in Europe since World War II. More than 4 million refugees have fled into the surrounding region, while millions more are displaced throughout Ukraine itself.

As bombs continue to fall on cities and neighborhoods, more and more civilians are forced to flee their homes, adding to a crisis affecting an estimated 100 million forcibly displaced people worldwide. Vital humanitarian organizations are struggling to provide much-needed aid and relief due to lack of funds and support.

As part of the Stand Up for Ukraine campaign, Global Citizen and 77 organizations, businesses, and institutions published an open letter to world leaders on Friday, calling for governments, philanthropists, artists, and businesses to support humanitarian relief efforts for refugees from Ukraine and conflicts around the world

UNHCR, the UN Refugee Agency, has reported a $10 billion funding gap of to address the global refugee crisis. Displacement caused by war, persecution, climate change, and human rights violations require immediate attention, but without the necessary funding, emergency aid organizations are unable to deliver the food, health care, and protection that is so urgently needed.

"That's why we are calling on governments, philanthropists, artists, and businesses to join us and #StandUpForUkraine," the letter states. "Billions of dollars must be committed in order to fund current refugee efforts in Ukraine and globally, and it is our hope that you will show your support by committing to the humanitarian agencies, organizations on the ground and to local authorities at the frontline that need it the most."

What does the open letter hope to achieve? More than 6.5 million people are displaced within Ukraine, while more than 4 million refugees have fled across borders, according to data from the UN-HCR. An estimated 12 million people are currently in need of assistance as a result of the conflict.

The open letter and Stand Up for Ukraine campaign aim to mobilize billions of dollars for refugee relief and ensure the most vulnerable — such as women, children, the elderly, and people with disabilities — are not overlooked or left behind.

The letter not only addresses Ukraine's refugee crisis but it also urges the international community not to shirk its responsibilities for refugees worldwide. We also must ensure that commitments made are new and additional to already existing spending, so as to not generate or exacerbate other crises in the process of responding to the needs of Ukraine and its neighbors," the letter says. "We must stand together in solidarity with the people of Ukraine and for all refugees and internally displaced people across the world."

What is Stand Up For Ukraine?

Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy began the call to Stand Up For Ukraine on March 26 in a video address, which implored politicians, business leaders, actors, musicians, and more to show their support for Ukraine. In response, European Commission President Ursula von der Leven and Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau, in partnership with Global Citizen, announced a pledging event on Saturday, April 9, in Warsaw, Poland. The event will be an opportunity for world leaders, philanthropists, and corporations to close the funding gap and bring aid to refugees around the world.

"A Ukrainian child has become a refugee every second since the start of the war. The world must stand up for them. The European Union is catering for the needs of the millions of refugees it hosts.

And we will further step up," von der Leyen said in a statement. "But so much is needed — and the brave people of Ukraine deserve solidarity from citizens and governments around the globe. Together, we can give them a safe home and bring some light in their lives at this dark hour."

8, amplifying the voices of advocates and further calling on world leaders to pledge financial support on Saturday. Musicians, artists, actors, and activists are taking to Twitter, Instagram, and YouTube to show their support with the hashtag #StandUpForUkraine. Learn more about the social media rally and pledg-

It started with a call to action, grew into a movement, and now world leaders are making new commitments and reaffirming pledges to deliver humanitarian aid to support refugees and displaced people from Ukraine and all around the world. More than 40 world leaders from Germany to Qatar and Switzerland to Slovakia made and renewed their commitments to Ukraine and all global refugees on Saturday, April 9, as part of a pledging event in Warsaw, Poland for the Stand Up for Ukraine campaign. The campaign, inspired by Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenkyy's call to action, and launched by European Commission President Ursula von der Leven and Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau, in partnership with Global Citizen, brought together organizations, businesses, artists, actors, advocates, and Global Citizens, to call on world leaders to pledge humanitarian aid to 'refugees from Ukraine and around the world — to help fill the UN Refugee Agency's $10 billion funding gap.

Since the Russian invasion of Ukraine began on Feb. 24, thousands of lives have been taken while more than 10 million people have been forced to leave their homes and families behind. With an estimated 13 million people in Ukraine in need of urgent assistance and at least 82 million refugees worldwide in need of aid. humanitarian efforts are struggling to reach all those who need help.

Artists, actors, creators, musicians, and Global Citizens banded together on Friday, April 8th to amplify advocates' voices on Twitter, Instagram, Facebook, YouTube, and TikTok in a social media rally piling pressure on world leaders ahead of Saturday's pledging event. With the call to action ignited across the world, Stand Up for Ukraine saw $10.1 billion (9.1 billion euros) pledged in new grants and loans to support those who have had to flee their homes in Ukraine and around world showed the powerful strength of unity and collective action, and what we can achieve when we raise our voices together, there's still more that world leaders can do to continue their support for people facing forced displacement, whether due to conflict, climate change, human rights violations, and more. Take action in support of all refugees globally here, and take this action today to urge world leaders to act now to prevent a global food crisis being triggered by the conflict in Ukraine.

Musicians, actors, athletes, entertainers, and advocates have showed a powerful display of unity as part of a global social media rally joining forces under the call to Stand Up For Ukraine and for all the world's refugees and displaced people. From heartfelt tweets to impassioned video messages, they've helped amplify the calls of advocates urging world leaders, businesses, governments, and institutions to mobilize funding for refugees from Ukraine and around the world.

The social media rally was held before the Stand Up For Ukraine pledging event on Saturday in Warsaw, Poland, hosted by European Commission President Ursula von der Leven and Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau in partnership with Global Citizen. The event aims to secure billions of dollars in funding to relieve the urgent refugee crisis worldwide.

Zelenskyy first implored the international community to Stand Up For Ukraine in a March 26 video message call to action. "I'm inviting everybody: musicians, actors, athletes, businessmen, politicians, everybody," said Zelenskyy in his address. "Everyone who wants to join this movement and Stand Up For Ukraine.'

Stand Up For Ukraine: An Open Letter Calls On World Leaders To Take Urgent Action for Refugees

Compiled And Edited By John T. Robbins, Southern Daily Editor

Inspiring Quotes From World Leaders Show Their Support For 'Stand Up For Ukraine' Here below are quotes and pledges from some of the dozens of world leaders that answered the call to action to Stand Up for Ukraine and for all refugees globally.

1.Scott Morrison, Prime Minister of Australia "We might be separated by half an earth but Australia stands with Ukraine," said Morrison. Morrison announced no new pledges but reiterated Australia's commitment to support Ukrainian efforts. He also mentioned that along with prioritizing Ukrainian visa applications, Australia has provided $65 million toward refugee relief efforts and is working with the UN and UK to provide additional humanitarian assistance. 2. Alexander Schallenberg, Minister of Foreign Affairs of Austria "In these dark hours, Austria stands with Ukraine. What the Ukrainian people desperately need and what they deserve is peace," Schallenberg said. "So my message to President Putin is simple: Silence the gun, pull back your troops, and end this war." 3. Mustafa Alsayed, Secretary General of The Royal Humanitarian Foundation, Kingdom of Bahrain "We wish the people of Ukraine a safe and quick end to their suffering, and we support all the initiatives taken to provide support and bring peace and stability to this important part of the world," Alsayed said. 4. Alexander de Croo, Prime Minister of Belgium "We're all brokenhearted by what is happening. Everyday we're shocked by the sheer inhumanity," de Croo said. "Homes and hospitals being destroyed. Families torn apart. Grandparents not knowing if their grandchildren are still alive. From the first hour, the first day, people in Belgium have opened their hearts and their homes for families on the run. At this very moment, Belgian trucks are on the road to Ukraine with medical assistance and food. We'll continue our efforts as long as needed," he pledged. "Belgium will not leave anyone behind." 5. Kalina Konstantinova, Deputy Prime Minister of Bulgaria "We have full confidence that we are capable and prepared to welcome and take care of more people in need," said Konstantinova "Bulgaria is a small country with a big heart. Bulgaria stands for peace. Bulgaria stands with Ukraine. 6. Andrej Plenković, Prime Minister of Croatia "Croatia pledges another 100 million euros in assisting Ukrainian refugees that we shall be receiving in our country in these dire times for the Ukrainian people," Plenković announced. "We will continue our support, our solidarity, and our help in these moments when we are standing by Ukraine and the Ukrainians.

opment Bank stands passionately behind Ukraine and their people," said Monticelli, "We are proud to be part of the Stand Up for Ukraine campaign and join forces with others to stand up against this war and to contribute for peace in Europe On behalf of the Council of Europe Development Bank,

Monticelli announced a 1 billion euro loan to member states to support long term needs of refugees and the areas they have evacuated to. 8. Nicos Anastasiades, President of Cyprus "In addition to our commitments so far, which are exceeding 2 million euros, I would like to announce a fresh and symbolic financial commitment of 100,000 euros to support the humanitarian work undertaken in Ukraine and neighboring countries by the relevant entities of the United Nations agencies." 9. Petr Fiala, Prime Minister of Czech Republic

Fiala emphasized the need for more assistance for the 300.000 Ukrainian refugees who have arrived in Czech Republic, most of whom are women and children, and announced that 200 million euros would be released in support of those refugees. "We will also continue to help directly in Ukraine," he said. "You can count on that. The Czech Republic stands behind Ukraine." 10. Mette Frederiksen, Prime Minister of Denmark "Our world changed six weeks ago. A brutal aggressor invaded a peaceful and democratic country. We have all seen the horrible pictures from the war. The total lack of humanity. It is heartbreaking," Frederiksen said. "Denmark stands in full solidarity with Ukraine. We support your fight for freedom and peace. And we open our hearts and homes to Ukrainians fleeing the war." Frederiksen added that Denmark has donated $53 million toward support in Ukraine and neighboring countries along with $22 million to the World Bank's budget support package for Ukraine. She also stated that her country is "ready to do more."

11. Odile Renaud-Basso. President of The European Bank for Reconstruction and Development "The invasion and war is a tragedy for the country and its people, and we are determined that we should stand up for Ukraine alongside our many friends and partners," said Renaud-Basso. "Millions of people have been displaced either within Ukraine or forced to live as refugees, and alleviating the impact on them is one of our main priorities."Renaud-Basso and the EBRD announced a pledge of 1 billion euros to support Ukrainian refugees as part of a larger resilience package that will also benefit surrounding countries taking in refugees. The plan also includes investments in municipal infrastructures such as funding companies so that refugees can find work. "I congratulate vou on organizing this initiative, and I'm sure that together we can make a difference." Renaud-Basso told Global ment Bank Hoyer announced that the European Investment bank plans to mobilize 4 billion euros toward investments and refugee assistance by the end of 2023. "As millions of Ukrainians flee their homes seeking safety, we cannot be paralyzed by horror," he said. "We must live up to the exemplary bravery and resilience of the Ukrainian people. We have to support them and those who are hosting them in Poland and elsewhere.

13. Sanna Marin, Prime Minister of Finland 'Finland is ready to assume its responsibility in this common effort. There is no time to waste," Marin said, describing the concerted efforts of Finland and the EU.

"Our entire society is with the Ukrainian people," she said. "We [will] do our best to help Ukraine and those fleeing from the atrocities of the war." 14. Olaf Scholz, Chancellor of Germany "Only a few hundred meters from here. at Berlin Central Station, trains with Ukrainian refugees are pulling in by the hour. I met with some refugees a few days ago. Their stories are heart wrenching." Scholz said. "I told them that they are welcome here and that in a joint effort, the federal government, our lender, and our local communities are doing all we can to provide shelter, health care, schools, and a safe future." Scholz added that Germany has pledged 425 million euros to humanitarian assistance for Ukraine and its neighbors plus 70 million euros for medical supplies through the European Civil Protection Mechanism. He said: "Germany stands with Ukraine and side by side with all of you."15. Kyriakos Mitsotakis, Prime Minister of Greece "When the war is over, we should rebuild what was destroyed and make it better for the heroic people of Ukraine," said Mitsotakis. "That is why Greece commits to rebuild Mariupol Maternity Hospital as we stand up for Ukraine and lift our sights for the future. What better way to do so than by securing the best conditions for welcoming new life?" 16. Ignacio Galán, Chairman and CEO of Iberdrola "I can announce today a further donation of 1 million euros to international organizations. Iberdrola is and will remain committed to help," Galán said, adding that Iberdrola and its employees have also provided electrical equipment and humanitarian supplies to Ukraine.

17. Micheál Martin Irish Taoiseach "We pledge from within our national resources and in line with the Temporary Protection Directive to provide our state support to them, including social welfare, accommodation and housing support, education, and health care, as we have said to the many thousands of Ukrainians who have fled to Ireland." said Ireland's Taoiseach Micheal Martin. "Our home is your home.

Martin announced a commitment of over 50 million euros for humanitarian aid and pledged ongoing support including 20 million euros to support people in Ukraine and in neighboring countries

18. Mario Draghi, Prime Minister of Italy 'Italians have thrown open the doors of their homes and of their schools. We will not look the other way," said Draghi, alluding to new governmental funding for Ukraine that would come in addition to the 500 million euros that has gone toward assisting refugees in Italy and 110 million euros for the Ukrainian government. 19. Katrín Jakobsdóttir. Prime Minister of Iceland "Iceland stands in full solidarity with Ukraine in the face of Russia's brutal military aggression." Jakobsdóttir said. Jakobsdóttir also added that Iceland has welcomed 600 Ukrainian refugees, contributed roughly half a billion Icelandic króna (US$3.8 million) to humanitarian efforts in Ukraine, and has allocated funds to the UN Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (OCHA), the UN Refugee Agency (UNHCR), the UN Population Fund (UNFPA), the UN

12. Werner Hoyer, President of the European Invest- Children's Fund (UNICEF), the International Committee bombing campaign has killed more than 1,900 civilians of the Red Cross (ICRC), the Icelandic Red Cross, and the World Bank's Reconstruction Fund. "I thank the organizers of the Stand Up for Ukraine campaign," she said. Tceland is ready to do more and the people of Iceland stand with the people of Ukraine." 20. Fumio Kishida. Prime Minister of Japan "Japan stands with the people of Ukraine who are facing a national crisis," said Japan's Prime Minister Fumio Kishida. He announced that Japan will provide a total of $300 million — including $200 million in emergency humanitarian assistance through international organizations and NGOs, for example of health and medical care, food assistance, and protection of displaced people, and $100 million in loads to support Ukraine's economy. "Japan will continue to implement assistance in solidarity with the Ukrainian people," he continued. "Stand up for Ukraine!"

"We Can Give Them A Safe Home And Bring Some Light Into Their Lives At This Dark Hour' "Stand Up For Ukraine" Campaign Aims To Drive Billions In Aid For Refugees Worldwide

As the humanitarian crisis caused by Russia's invasion of Ukraine continues to grow in urgency, European Commission President Ursula von der Leven and Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau announced the success of the "Stand Up for Ukraine" pledging event, that took place on Saturday, April 9, in Warsaw, Poland, The event aimed to mobilize significant funding to help vulnerable civilians impacted by the conflict and to support refugees everywhere. Ahead of the event, a global social media rally supported by Global Citizen took place on Friday, April 8, in response to a new video from Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy in which he called on the international community to help people affected by the invasion. The rally encouraged citizens to call on governments, institutions, corporations, and individuals to donate to humanitarian efforts for Ukraine and refugees from conflicts worldwide, such as Yemen, South Sudan, and Afghanistan

Together, the Stand Up for Ukraine pledging event and rally seek to raise billions of dollars to bolster the United Nations' flash funding appeal to assist the more than 3.7 million refugees who have fled Ukraine, the 6.5 million people displaced within the country, and other global humanitarian priorities "A Ukrainian child has become a refugee almost every single second since the start of the war," von der Leyen said in a statement. "The world must stand up for them. The European Union is catering for the needs of the millions of refugees it hosts. And we will further step up. But so much is needed still—and the brave people of Ukraine deserve solidarity from citizens and governments around the globe," she added. "Together, we can give them a safe home and bring some light in their lives at this dark hour.' More than 12 million and made entire cities unlivable through the destruction of apartment blocks, key infrastructure, and health care

"Today, our message to the Ukrainian people is this: We are standing with you," Trudeau said. "Whether you need food, water, shelter, or medical aid - we are rallying the world to continue to have your backs and provide critical assistance where it is needed most. When we all work together, we can achieve the best outcomes for those displaced by Putin's illegal and unjustifiable invasion of facilities.

The consequences will only worsen as the conflict drags on and the Russian army seeks to overwhelm additional parts of Ukraine. In his video message, Zelenskyv further described the impact of the war "Millions of Ukrainians had their own home, had their own dreams, had their own quiet place, had their own world they could close from others or open it to everyone." he said. "They had their own home until Russian missiles, bombs, shells came in. Until the invaders have come, and have destroyed and burned down absolutely everything. City after city, village after village, thousands of houses ruined, thousands of destroyed apartments," he added. "Hundreds of cities and towns are annihilated, some are erased to ashes, burned

The UN is leading efforts for a ceasefire, and Zelenskyy has been urging Russian President Vladimir Putin to negotiate an end to the conflict — but little progress has been made so far. Zelenskyy urged people around the world to support the

∰1 ask you to support Ukraine, to support Ukrainians with the 'Stand Up for Ukraine' motto." he said "I'm inviting everybody:

musicians, actors, athletes

businessmen, politicians, everybody. Everyone who wants to join this movement and 'Stand Up for Ukraine.' The surge of refugees from Ukraine adds to a larger crisis worldwide. Globally, 82.4 million people are displaced, and there's a $10 billion gap in funding for their support. Stand Up for Ukraine aims to mobilize funds to assist with this funding gap to ensure all refugees, everywhere, receive the aid they need.

"History has shown us that conflict and poverty are closely interconnected, resulting in the weakening of the rule of law, a collapse in economic development, and often catastrophic humanitarian situations," said Hugh Evans, CEO of Global Citizen. 'There is no doubt that the conflict in Ukraine has led to a humanitarian crisis — members of Global Citizen saw this ourselves at the Ukrainian-Polish border. More than 3 million refugees have fled their homes, with millions more likely on their way," he said. "Global Citizen has a history of responding rapidly to humanitarian crises, and this is no different. We're calling for an immediate end to this crisis, and the provision of immediate financing to support refugee relief efforts not iust in Ukraine but around the world."

由保守派佔多數的美國最高法院終於作出裁決,否定美國憲法有 賦予婦女選擇墮胎的權利。這項與主流民意相違背的決議之所以能在 美國的最高法院通過,是因為特朗普在任期間,成功地把三位保守派 的大法官塞入美國最高法院,令最高法院內保守派法官與自由派法官 的比例變成了6:3。

美國有十三個由共和黨控制的州議會,一早已制定好觸動機制,只 要最高法院一作出上述判決,就可以即時啓動早前部署好的限制墮胎 法例自動生效。另外還有13個州,亦會趁最高法院有這麼明確取向的 時候,盡快在自己的州內通過限制婦女墮胎的本土法例。

由於美國尚有近半的州份,會繼續容許合法墮胎,需要墮胎的婦女 ,大可以去這些自由派當政的州份墮胎。不過,有部分保守派執政的 州份已表明,一定會追究那些去別的州份墮胎的當地居民。爲此,自 由派的州份已命令州內的執法人員,不得與限制墮胎州份的司法機構 合作,以冤他們掌握證據,去起訴那些偷偷地去自由派主政的州份墮 胎的婦女。

不過天無絕人之路。有人已在網路上,建議到美國的北部的鄰國加 拿大去墮胎,因爲哪裡是合法墮胎之國!

這個消息一經公開,「從美國搬到加拿大去有多難」、「搬到加拿 大要花多少 錢」 和 「在加拿大墮胎是否合法」 的搜索量均猛烈激增 。其中「我可以搬到加拿大嗎」的搜索量,增加了180%,而「從美

國搬到加拿大」的搜索量,也增加了90% 今次除了美國人對這項裁決的普 遍憤怒外,連美國的拜把老二加拿 大的總理杜魯道 (Justin Trudeau), 亦公開譴責 美國最高法院推翻

「羅訴韋德 案」 的決定是有違公德的。杜魯道推文說: 「從美國傳 來的消息令人震驚。我的心與數百萬現在將失去墮胎 合法權利的美國 婦女同在。我無法想像你現在感受到的恐懼和憤怒。」為此,加拿大 爲想要墮胎的美國人敞開大門。加國聯邦家庭、兒童和社 會發展部長 古爾德 (Karina Gould) 發言人發聲明說: 「來到加拿大的美國人如 果有需要,可以獲得醫療服務。」而該國的聯邦公共安全部長門迪奇 諾 (Marco Mendicino) 於 5 月曾 對記者說,他已與加拿大邊境服務局 (CBSA) 商討,以確保尋求墮胎的美國人能夠安全進入加拿大。加拿 大最高法院於1988年作出一項裁決,使墮胎合法化。1990年代初,當 時執政的保守黨政府曾嘗試立法禁止墮胎(生死攸關的情況除外), 但沒能成功。由於加拿大整體民意傾向支 持墮胎,因此從那以後,加 拿大政黨均不願改變現狀,儘管有保 守派人士企圖重啓辯論墮胎的議 題,但也都遭到黨內自行滅火消 音。

這兩天短影音串流平台 TikTok 上已經有許多加拿大用戶向 需要墮胎 服務的美國人伸出友善之手。 一名TikTok 用戶在影片中貼文說: 「致 我的美國好友:我 住的地方離密西根邊境僅僅是20分鐘路程,如果你 想週末來,我可以 給你一個安全的空間。」 加拿大的 TikTok 用戶使用 #wegodowntogether標籤為美國人提供一個住宿和休養恢復的地方。
